

The Water Well Project

Health education sessions facilitated by healthcare professionals for migrant, refugee and asylum seeker communities

Hello #FirstName#!

If you're anything like us, you're wondering where the year has gone!

Here at The Water Well Project, we've been extremely busy delivering health education sessions, providing mental health training to our volunteers and developing resources to maximise interactivity and engagement for our community participants.

Welcome to our new Chief Executive Officer Matt Anderson

To coincide with Refugee Week 2023,
we welcomed our new CEO,
Matt Anderson.

Matt is a social impact leader with over 20 years' experience in community development, organisational growth, and human-centred innovation.

He brings his strategic and operations experience in both the not-for-profit and for-profit sector. He has worked with organisations such as World Vision, Save the Children, the Microsoft Foundation; as well as specific migration/ refugee initiatives including with the Red Cross, Welcome to Australia, Circle of Friends and the National Refugee Taskforce.

Alongside Jacob from Youth Affairs Council on ABC Breakfast TV, we talked about barriers to healthcare faced by individuals from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds.

Please consider a tax-deductible donation to help us continue providing free health education to improve the health outcomes of communities from migrant, refugee and asylum seeker backgrounds.
